Financial Disclosure Statement (to be completed by Planner/Presenter)

As expected of an individual involved in the planning and implementation of an educational activity certified by the University of Alabama School of Medicine, Division of CME, I agree to teach to the competencies identified by the objectives, deliver balanced and objective evidence-based content, present the source and type or level of evidence (e.g., animal study, RCT, meta-analysis), and disclose any relationship/s related to the activity's content and/or supporter/s to the audience. I understand that the ACCME defines "relevant financial relationships" as financial relationships in any amount occurring in the past 12 months that create a conflict of interest.

I, or members of my family have a financial arrangement or affiliation related to the content or the supporter/s of this activity as identified below:

Type/s of affiliation or financial interest and name/s of corporation/s:

- Grants/research support: _____
- Consultant: _____
- Stock shareholder (directly purchased): _____
- Honorarium: _____
- Other financial or material support: _____
- NONE

NOTE: If anything other than "None" is checked. The RSS course director is responsible for completing and signing the conflict of interest resolution below.

Conflict of Interest Resolution (COI)

As a representative of the University of Alabama School of Medicine, an accredited provider of CME, I agree to follow ACCME requirements regarding industry support of continuing medical education with the understanding that failure to comply will result in withdrawal of certification of this activity for CME credit. As program director, I have reviewed this financial disclosure and determined the following:

- There is no conflict of interest, defined by the ACCME as a current relevant personal financial relationship, between the planner/presenter's financial disclosure and independence or balance of the content of this activity.
- There existed the potential for conflict of interest between the planner/presenter's financial disclosure and independence or balance of the content of this activity, but it has been resolved by (check as many as apply):
 - Peer review (the extent to which may have ranged from a brief conversation about independence and balance to review of slides or handouts).
 - Having the planner/presenter not make recommendations regarding specific products or limiting the planner/presenter's recommendations to those based on a formally structured literature search and review for the best available evidence.
 - Other: _____
